

Relational Currency

- How much are you putting down?
- How much are they putting down?
- How much energy are you putting into the relationship?
- How much energy are they putting into the relationship?
- What's the account balance (history of deposits) in the relationship?
- What value would be appropriate for the situation/environment?